

WORKSHOP OUTLINES

	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	DURATION (MINUTES)	AUDIENCE	Max. # participants
Cyber Safety	Going Places Safely	This interactive session is specifically for early childhood and lower primary level children . It focuses on enjoying the internet while staying safe using three key age-appropriate rules.	45	Lower Primary	50
	Respectful Relationships Online and Off	Looking after yourself and others online; understanding the impact of social media sharing; social/emotional strategies; building resilience; valuing difference, (cyber)bullying.	60	Primary and Secondary age	100
	Digital Reputation and Privacy	Digital citizenship; safe social media use; critical digital literacy; protecting private information; privacy settings.	60		100
	#Trending – Youth Behaviours and Technology	Insight into the online worlds of young people including; latest trends, risks and research. Plus, tips for teachers/parents on how to manage technology use in the school/home.	60	Adults	100
	Risk and Response - Cyber safety and Bullying	Risks and incident responses for: cyberbullying, sexting, impersonation/hacking, trolling/flaming; latest and best industry resources, including the Office of the eSafety Commissioner.	60	Teachers	100
	Policies and Processes - Cyber safety and Bullying	Organisational policies and processes for technology use - how to develop and/or how to implement them; everyone's role.	60	Teachers	100

Please note the Alannah & Madeline Foundation reserves the right to change these offerings without notice and at any stage. The Foundation will endeavour to the best of its abilities to deliver the workshops selected by organisations who have finalised bookings as per the terms and conditions agreed to at the time of booking.

	3 C's of Cyber Safety	These are general cyber safety sessions. They provide an overview of the key cyber safety topics and protective factors for keeping safe online. The Alannah & Madeline Foundation's 3 C's of Cyber Safety – Contact, Conduct and Content ensure consistent approaches to keeping safe online. Sessions are available for middle primary, upper primary.	60	Primary age	100
Bullying	Bullying – Latest Research and Tips	Provides an overview of bullying – what it is, what it isn't, and what you can do about it.	60	Adults	100
	Workplace Bullying	Provides an overview of the Foundation's work in bullying prevention, what bullying is, what it isn't, signs that bullying may be occurring, and what staff/managers can do to improve workplace culture, policies and incident responses. It also explores aspects of cyber bullying and how this behaviour may impact the workplace.	60	Adults	100
The Alannah &amp; Madeline Foundation	Our History	Discover the story of the Alannah & Madeline Foundation and its key pillars of care, prevention and advocacy. The workshop includes themes relating to resilience and leadership.	30 & 60	Adults	100
	What we do	An overview of the breadth of programs provided by the Alannah & Madeline Foundation across the areas of care, prevention and advocacy. Includes best practice examples and an outline of impacts of each evidence based program.	30 & 60	Adults	100

	Cubby House	An overview of the impacts of the Alannah & Madeline Foundation's Cubby House. The Cubby House is an Australian-first initiative that provides a supportive and safe haven for children and young people dealing with traumatic family situations in the Broadmeadows Children's Court.	30	Adults	100
Care	Module 1 – An introduction to the impact of neglect and abuse	This workshop is session one of a four part series for adults supporting children and young people who have experienced violence or trauma. The session provides an introduction to the impacts violence and trauma have on the development of children and young people.	60	Adults who work with children	Workshops and presentations can be tailored to suit your needs. Please contact us to discuss.
	Module 2 - Impact of neglect and violence on learning and relationships	This workshop is session two of a four part series for adults supporting children and young people who have experienced violence or trauma. The session provides insights into the impact violence and trauma has on the intellectual development and social function of children and young people.	60
	Module 3 - Assessing risk and mandatory reporting	This workshop is session three of a four part series for adults supporting children and young people who have experienced violence or trauma. The session provides advice on assessing risk and guidelines relating to mandatory reporting including the Child Safe standards and Betrayal of Trust Legislation.	60
	Module 4 - Practical tips for working with children and young people who have experienced neglect and abuse	This workshop is the final session of a four part series for adults supporting children and young people who have experienced violence or trauma. The session provides practical, relationship based approaches that support adults that work with children and young people who have experienced violence and trauma.	60

Please note the Alannah & Madeline Foundation reserves the right to change these offerings without notice and at any stage. The Foundation will endeavour to the best of its abilities to deliver the workshops selected by organisations who have finalised bookings as per the terms and conditions agreed to at the time of booking.